CHICKEN AND DUMPLINGS
A traditional Chinese dish made with a savory broth, shredded chicken, and dumplings. It's a comfort food that has been enjoyed for centuries.
The dumplings are usually made from flour, water, and either pork or chicken meat, and are boiled until they're tender and fluffy. The broth is usually made from chicken stock, soy sauce, and ginger, and is often spiced with garlic, scallions, and pepper. The dish is typically served with rice or noodles, and can be eaten as a main course or as a side dish. It's a simple yet delicious dish that's perfect for any occasion.
